

LWB Whistle Blower Policy

Love Without Boundaries has set a standard of maintaining unimpeachable ethics for its work with children. We follow all US and Chinese laws at all times. If a volunteer or employee believes that a policy or activity of Love Without Boundaries Foundation is in violation of the law, he or she may file a complaint with their program director, Executive Director or Board of Directors. When a volunteer or employee makes a complaint in good faith, that volunteer or employee shall be protected from retaliation.
